

2003 Spring Conference
May 8-9th
Walla Walla Community College,
Walla Walla, Washington

“Information Competency as a Requirement for Graduation ”

Jointly sponsored by the:
College Librarians & Media Specialists (CLAMS)
Library Media Directors Council (LMDC)

Presenters Dan Crump (Librarian, American River College) and Kate Clark (English Professor, Irvine Valley College) will discuss the initiative in the California Community College system to make Information Competency a requirement for graduation. Both members of the CCC Academic Senate, Mr. Crump and Ms. Clark will share with us the trials, tribulations, successes and challenges of such an undertaking.

Discussion will follow regarding similar possibilities here in Washington.
